Gen. No.
2379

GEORGE, R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to provide for the reduction to peace establishment of Our Special Reserve of Officers;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that all officers of Our Special Reserve of Officers who were granted Commissions on or after 5th August, 1914, and shall not have relinquished such Commissions prior to 31st March, 1920, shall cease to hold their Commissions after the date last named, except such officers whose demobilization has been postponed by Our Army Council beyond 31st March, 1920, who shall have their Commissions terminated on such later date as Our Army Council may determine in accordance with the exigencies of the Service.

GIVEN at Our Court at St. James's, this 31st day of March, 1920, in the 10th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
E. S. MONTAGU.

ARMY COUNCIL'S INSTRUCTIONS ON THE ABOVE WARRANT.

It will be unnecessary for the officers mentioned in the above Royal Warrant to submit applications to resign their Commissions, since gazette action will be taken in due course to relinquish their Commissions.

The regulations under which these officers will be allowed to retain their rank are laid down in Army Order 376 of 1918.

With reference to paragraph 418, Special Reserve Regulations, as amended by Army Order 152 of 1914, neither the gratuity of 20% nor any part of it will be issuable to officers who were granted Commissions on or after 5th August, 1914. That gratuity applies only to peace conditions and will not again become issuable until after the date of the end of the war as fixed by statute (this date has not yet been determined, but will be notified in due course).

Officers who were commissioned to the Special Reserve before 5th August, 1914, and have not relinquished their Commissions on the date of the statutory end of the war, will become eligible for gratuity under the general conditions of paragraph 418, Special Reserve Regulations. The rate for service rendered between that date and the anniversary of appointment to the Special Reserve will be one-fourth of the gratuity for each completed quarter. Issues will be made by regimental paymasters.

Officers of the Special Reserve whose Commissions are terminated and who wish to be considered for Commissions in the newly constituted Militia may submit applications to have their names recorded. Such applications should be addressed in the case of Foot Guards to Officer Commanding Regimental Headquarters, in the case of cavalry and infantry to the Officer Commanding their regimental depot, and in case of other arms and services to the Secretary, War Office. Names of officers so applying will be registered so that, within the limit of the numbers required, they may be given an opportunity later on of applying for a Commission in the Militia when the detailed conditions of service are published.

By Command of the Army Council,
H. J. CREEDY.

auditor to books.

(iii) The person making the investigation or audit (hereinafter called the auditor) shall have a right of access to the books, accounts and vouchers of the trustees and to any securities and documents of title held by them on account of the trust, and may require from them such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of his duties.

(iv) Upon the completion of the investigation and audit such person shall forward to the applicant and to every trustee a copy of the accounts, together with a report thereon, and a certificate signed by him to the effect that the accounts exhibit a true view of the state of the affairs of the trust and that he has had the securities of the trust fund investments produced to and verified by him or (as the case may be) that such accounts are deficient in such respects as may be specified in such certificate.

Inspection by beneficiaries.

(v) Every beneficiary under the trust shall, subject to rules under this Enactment, be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies of the accounts, report and certificate and, at his own expense, to be furnished with copies thereof or extracts therefrom.

Removal of auditor.

(vi) The auditor may be removed by order of the Court, and, if any auditor is removed or resigns or dies or becomes bankrupt or incapable of acting before the investigation and audit is completed, a new auditor may be appointed in his place in like manner as the original auditor.

(vii) The remuneration of the auditor and the other expenses of the investigation and audit shall be such as may be prescribed by rules under this Enactment and shall, unless the public trustee otherwise directs, be borne by the estate.

(viii) In the event of the public trustee so directing, he may order that such expenses be borne by the applicant or by the trustees personally or partly by them and partly by the applicant.

(ix) If any person having the custody of any documents to which the auditor has a right of access under this section fails or refuses to allow him to have access thereto or in anywise obstructs the investigation or audit, the auditor may apply to the Court, and thereupon the Court shall make such order as it thinks fit.

(x) Any person who in any statement of accounts, report or certificate required for the purposes of this section wilfully makes a statement false in any material particular shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both.

RULES.

15. (i) The Chief Secretary to Government shall make rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Enactment and in particular for all or any of the following purposes: Rules by Chief Secretary.

- (a) Establishing the office of public trustee and prescribing the trusts or duties which he is authorized to accept or undertake and the security, if any, to be given by the public trustee and his officers;
- (b) The transfer to and from the public trustee of any property;
- (c) The accounts to be kept and an audit thereof;
- (d) The establishment and regulation of any branch office;
- (e) Excluding any trusts from the operation of this Enactment or any part thereof;
- (f) The form and manner in which notices under this Enactment shall be given.

(ii) Any rules made by the Chief Secretary to Government under this section shall be published in the Gazette and shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (iii) and (iv), have the same force and effect as if enacted in this Enactment.

(iii) Such rules shall be laid before the Federal Council at its next meeting after the making of the rules and shall not after such meeting remain in force unless approved by a resolution of the said Council.

(iv) In approving any rules the Federal Council may make such alterations therein as it may think fit. Such approval and alterations (if any) shall be published in the Gazette, and the rules shall thereafter have effect subject to such alterations (if any).

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill provides for the creation of the office of Public Trustee, who is to be a corporation sole, and who

- (a) may be appointed trustee of any will or settlement or other instrument creating a trust;
- (b) may accept the offices of executor or administrator;
- (c) may, on application made to him, administer, in place of the Court, estates under $5,000 in value; and
- (d) may investigate and audit the accounts of trusts not administered by the Public Trustee.

2. The Treasury guarantees the beneficiaries against the breaches of trust of the Public Trustee, including the acts and defaults of his officers. For the service of the Public Trustee and the Treasury's guarantee the Government charges fees in the nature of a commission on capital and income.

3. The Bill is designed to meet the increasing difficulty of finding suitable persons to act as trustees and to safeguard beneficiaries against fraudulent misappropriation by trustees.

4. It adopts the provisions of the Straits Public Trustees Ordinance of 1915 which is modelled on the Imperial Public Trustee Act 1906 and the New Zealand Public Trust Office (Consolidation) Act 1908.
